FREE FLU JABS FOR VULNERABLE RESIDENTS

FREE flu vaccines are now available for vulnerable people in east London.

Those eligible for a free flu vaccination are children aged two to four, pregnant women, people aged under 65 with a long-term condition (such as diabetes, asthma, or a weakened immune system) anyone aged 65 and over and carers.

Public health teams are advising people to urgently have their jabs at their GP or pharmacist.

Figures published last month by Public Health England and NHS England revealed that many residents have yet to take up the offer.

Cllr Ahsan Khan, Waltham Forest Council's cabinet member for health, said: "If you are entitled to a free flu jab, then I would urge you to protect yourself and others by arranging to get one from your local GP or pharmacy as soon as you're able to, before flu starts circulating more widely in the community.

"Medical experts are clear about who is most at risk of severe illness caused by the flu virus, so if you fall into any of the groups listed there's no reason not to take action – getting vaccinated won't cost a penny."

According to the latest figures, uptake amongst GP patients for September 1 to October 31, 2014 – just 9,749 of the 19,377 registered patients in Waltham Forest aged 65 and over have had their flu jab.

And, of the 9,593 children aged two to four registered at borough surgeries, only 797 have been vaccinated against flu.

GP Dr Thaven Chetty, NHS Waltham Forest Clinical Commissioning Group's clinical lead for prescribing, said: "I encourage everyone in a high risk group to get a flu vaccination.

"Some people avoid it because there is a myth that it can give you the flu, however this is simply not true.

"The vaccine doesn't contain any live viruses, so it can't cause the flu.

"It is important to be vaccinated each year as the viruses that cause the flu change and the vaccination is updated to protect against these new bugs. If you were vaccinated last year, you will no longer be protected."

For more about seasonal flu and the flu vaccine visit www.nhs.uk/flu or phone 111. If you think you are eligible for a free vaccination, please contact your GP or visit your local pharmacy.

Responsibility for public health transferred to councils in April 2013.

Competition

Win family tickets to see Sleeping Beauty

JOIN the Queen's Theatre, Hornchurch, for a hero's adventure in the enchanting pantomime Sleeping Beauty.

Children of all ages can follow brave Tom Clutterbuck on his thrilling quest through the Enchanted Forest to rescue the beautiful Princess Aurora until January 10.

When Aurora was a baby, the evil Fairy Carabosse placed a curse on the princess so that on her 18th birthday she would prick her finger and fall asleep for 100 years.

Will Tom defeat the terrifying dragon, break the dreadful spell and save the day?

The whole family can cheer the handsome hero on his way, hiss at the wicked Carabosse, giggle with the hilarious Silly Billy and panto dame Nurse Nellie and help the Good Fairy Primrose to sprinkle her magical dust across the land.

This marvellous, musical adventure stars cut to the chase... the theatre's professional company of actor-musicians, plus a young troupe of 24 talented local schoolchildren, and promises laughter and songs, fantastic sets and costumes, plenty of audience participation and gallons of glitter.

Performances are selling out fast, so the only way to guarantee a seat at the popular performances is to book by calling the box office on 01708 443333 or visit www.queens-theatre.co.uk.

Christmas just isn't Christmas without a trip to Queen's most magical show of the year and we are giving away three family tickets, each admitting four people, to see the show on Tuesday, January 6, at 7pm.

To win answer the following question.

Q: For how many years does Princess Aurora fall asleep for when she is cursed by evil Fairy Carabosse?

- A: 80 years
B: 90 years
C: 100 years

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1664) with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YASLEEP (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333. Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

Houses at risk of flooding

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A COUNCIL report has found that more than 160 homes in three areas in the borough are potentially at risk from flooding – with one identified as south Chingford.

Waltham Forest Council is bidding for funding from the Environment Agency to investigate flooding in the town after a team identified south Chingford as one of three areas that could face problems in extreme conditions.

The team also found that 166 homes in south Chingford, along Fillebrook Road, Leytonstone, and near Chestnuts Showground, Walthamstow, could suffer from severe rainfall.

The west of the borough, which includes south Chingford, has been identified as a problem area because of its proximity to the Lower Lea river.

Over the past two years the council has had to deal with 20 flooding incidents, with the majority taking place in Lower Hall Lane and Royston Avenue, both in Chingford.

In his report, Vala Valavan, Waltham Forest Council's head of highways and infrastructure, said: "The increased occurrence of extreme weather events places a strain on the existing drainage network, meaning residents and businesses could be increasingly affected by flooding and surface water issues in the future."

"The council has bid for money to appoint consultants to carry out drainage investigation and prepare scheme proposals for the following areas in the next financial year – Fillebrook, south Chingford and Chestnuts showground.

"Environment Agency advice is understood that in these three areas 166 homes are at risk, which could increase further due to the impact of climate change and increasing storm intensity."

Other proposals being considered include installing a new flood warning station on Ching Brook to service Chingford, continue maintaining the Lea flood relief channel and increase protection along the Dagenham Brook in Walthamstow and Leyton.

A report called Surface Flooding is due to be discussed on Tuesday, December 16, at Waltham Forest

Town Hall, in Forest Road, Walthamstow.

Councillors are due to see case studies of improvements in Chingford including creating gullies in Woodside Gardens and Winchester Road, creating a run-off in Larkshall Road and installing French drains in Priory Close.

As a lead local flooding authority Waltham Forest Council has a requirement under the Flood and Water Management Act 2010 to produce a flood risk management strategy.

The council is responsible for surface water, ground water brooks, streams and ditches.

Flooding from main rivers remains the responsibility of the Environment Agency.

TALENT: Pupils from Mission Grove School painted murals to celebrate the reopening of Palmerston Road bridge

Murals unveiled as Palmerston Road bridge reopens

PUPILS painted murals to celebrate the reopening of Palmerston Road bridge in Waltham Forest.

The Mission Grove School youngsters contributed to the major scheme of works that Network Rail started in April.

Councillor Clyde Loakes, deputy leader of Waltham Forest Council, said: "We're really pleased to see this vital link open.

"I know it has caused both local people and businesses inconvenience and has been disruptive to those of us who travel around the borough regularly.

"It's obviously really good news that Network Rail have managed to get the job done before Christmas. It is something we have been pushing for as we know the High Street traders in particular will really benefit from it reopening."

The bridge crosses over the Gospel Oak to Barking rail line and was constructed in 1884.

Stringent weight and width restrictions were imposed in 2012 to prevent further deterioration, resulting in diversions to the W11 and W15 bus routes and HGVs servicing Walthamstow Market.

As a result the replacement of the bridge was considered essential and while it involved a great deal of complication, with Network Rail needing to divert 16 services from five different utility firms well in advance of the major works in the summer, there was very little option.

The old bridge was successfully demolished and the main beams and parapets for the new structure constructed over five weekends in August and September.

LOVING: Harjinder Singh Bhurji had dreams of becoming a father

APPEAL: Rory Gordon's murder conviction appeal was rejected

REJECTED: Jae'don Fearon saw his appeal against his manslaughter conviction refused

Judge rejects appeal from two carjackers

APPEALS against the sentences of two carjackers convicted of killing a businessman have been rejected by a judge.

Lord Chief Justice John Thomas upheld the sentences of Rory Gordon, 23, of Rainhill Way in Bow, and Jae'don Fearon, of Manor Farm Drive, Chingford, at the Royal Courts of Justice on Tuesday, December 2.

Gordon was handed a life sentence with a minimum term of 30 years at the Old Bailey on Wednesday, April 20, for murdering Harjinder Singh Bhurji, 32, of Highbury Gardens, Ilford, on September 13, 2011.

His 21-year-old accomplice was jailed for 13 years for manslaughter.

Mr Bhurji, a former Mercedes employee and successful garage owner, was stabbed through the heart and left to die after refusing to hand over the keys to his Mercedes CLK in Stoneleigh Road, Ilford. He was attacked after he pulled over to speak to a friend sitting in the passenger seat.

The businessman died at the side of the road from a single stab after Gordon, formally of Chingford Hatch, stabbed him when he refused to hand over the keys.

The Mercedes was later found by police abandoned in Forest Glade, Highams Park.

A third man, Andre Campbell, 23, of Aldridge Way in Highams Park, was convicted of handling stolen goods after selling Mr Bhurji's smartphone, which had been left in the car.

Detective Inspector Andy Yeates said: "Mr Bhurji was a loving son and brother who had everything to live for. He was a successful businessman and worked hard to provide for his family. Gordon and Fearon have no concept of hard work. They spotted Mr Bhurji's car and decided they would take it by force without a single thought for the devastating consequences."

Family pay tribute to woman killed in road accident

TRIBUTES have been paid by the family of a woman killed in a road accident.

Laura Roberts, who was living in the Willowcroft Care Home, Sewardstone Road, Chingford, was described as a loving "daughter, sister and aunty".

The 46-year-old died from injuries sustained in a road collision in Sewardstone Road at 5.30pm on Thursday, November 20.

Speaking on behalf of her family, her brother Steven Roberts, said: "Laura was a dearly loved daughter, sister, auntie and friend to everyone that knew her."

"All the family members and friends will miss Laura very much."

Willowcroft is a residential home providing care.

It specialises in providing a supportive environment for men and women with a history of mental illness, learning disability, neurological disorders and behavioural problems.

Tony Batt, who owns Willowcroft Care Home, also paid his respects.

He said: "You were dearly loved by all of us. Our beautiful lady."

"You will remain in our hearts always. We miss you."

An inquest was opened and adjourned at County Hall Coroner's Court, in Chelmsford, on Tuesday, December 2.

A post-mortem examination gave Miss Robert's death as multiple-injuries.

- A 35-year-old man from Waltham Cross, arrested at the scene of a collision on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving and other alleged driving offences, has been bailed pending further police inquiries.

He will report back to police on Monday, March 2,

CELEBRATE: Waltham Forest Mayor Cllr Terry Wheeler with Rushcroft School students

'Inspirational young people' in spotlight

A SCHOOL has picked up a handful of awards for its learning and the dedication of its students and staff.

Rushcroft Foundation School, in Rushcroft Road, Chingford, received 11 accolades in the Jack Petchey Awards.

Teacher Funda Hassa was handed a leader award after being voted by pupils for her efforts in building up a rapport with young people.

Award-winning students were Virdah Dar, Latisha Osei, Tangina Miah, Ibtisam Hussain, James Bonney, Clarisse Afonso, Armend Hoxha and Jade Appleton Stringer.

Waltham Forest Superintendent Joanne Chinn said: "It was a real privilege to present the awards to such inspirational young people from Waltham Forest."

"The [Jack Petchey] foundation provides the support and encouragement to young people, to inspire in them the belief that they can achieve their personal goals, and the ceremony is evidence that young people in Waltham Forest are doing just that - achieving great things."

"My warmest congratulations to every award-winner and also to all the family members who have supported them."

Other guests attending the event included Mayor of Waltham Forest, Councillor Terry Wheeler.

He said: "The awards have been a great evening showcasing Waltham Forest's talented and inspiring young people.

"This will undoubtedly help them in their paths to achieving their dreams."

Drug trafficker arrested

A DRUG trafficker is facing extradition after he was found in Chingford.

Shkelzen Zuna was arrested last Wednesday at 12.15pm by officers from the National Crime Agency and the Metropolitan Police.

The 39-year-old, who grew up in Berat, Albania, has been on the run from Italian authorities since 2013.

Italian authorities originally sentenced Zuna to 14 years imprisonment for trafficking heroin over a 10-year period and issued a European Arrest Warrant after he fled the country.

Dave Allen, head of the NCA Fugitives Unit, said: "Zuna's arrest highlights how effective international partnerships can make life on the run increasingly difficult for criminals. From receiving the European Arrest Warrant from the Italian authorities the NCA and Metropolitan Police executed an arrest less than 24 hours later. Zuna is now in custody and extradition proceedings are under way to send him back to Italy to face the consequences of his crimes."

At the Chingford address, police found forged identity documents including a Polish passport in the name of Pawel Malek and a Bulgarian identity card in the name Blagor Kolev.

He was identified after a separate NCA investigation highlighted his links into a suspected London and Essex-based Albanian organised crime network.

Doctor Who, BBC1, 6.15pm

As usual when it comes to Doctor Who, we have scant details to offer you. That's because showrunner Steven Moffat is slightly obsessed with keeping his plots a secret in case spoilers leak out. Now, we applaud that idea, but a few morsels to whet the appetite would be nice. So, what do we know? Well, Peter Capaldi is still the gallivanting Gallifreyan, Jenna Coleman is back as Clara and Nick Frost makes a guest appearance as the one and only Santa Claus. The action takes place on an Arctic base which is under attack from terrifying creatures – and only the Doctor and his pal Santa can save the day. Watch out too for a few other familiar faces, including former Coronation Street and Strictly Come Dancing star Natalie Gumede and Michael Troughton, who continues his family's association with the programme – his brother David has appeared in the show several times, while their father, Patrick, played the Doctor's second incarnation.

That Day We Sang, BBC2, 9pm

Is there anything Victoria Wood can't do? She's brought us classic sketch shows, a memorable sitcom in dinnerladies, and proved with Housewife, 49 that she could do drama as well. And now she's taking on arguably her most ambitious TV project to date as she directs her own musical. Set in 1969, it stars Michael Ball and Imelda Staunton – who previously picked up Olivier Awards for co-starring in a West End revival of Sweeney Todd – as Tubby and Enid, who were once members of Manchester's Children's Choir. When they are reunited for a documentary marking the 40th anniversary of their iconic recording of Nymphs and Shepherds, it's a chance for the now middle-aged ex-choristers to reflect on the power of music and the direction their lives have taken. But could it also mark a new beginning for the lonely pair?

Bruce's Hall of Fame, BBC1, 8.30pm

One of the best things about Bruce Forsyth leaving Strictly was the fact it gave him a chance to front fresh shows like this. In 1958 he made his TV debut at the London Palladium, so it's fitting that he's back in the spotlight for a special show. Aside from working the crowd with his usual skill, he's joined by a handful of famous faces paying tribute to the entertainers who inspired them. Jamie Cullum sings the praises of Tony Bennett; Jon Culshaw is on top form with his Mike Yarwood turn (just count the amount of old and new impressions), and Alfie Boe reflects on the genius of Dean Martin. Ben Miller, the former Death in Paradise star, was so inspired by the work of Norman Wisdom, he decided to recreate his comedy decorator's sketch (with a little help from Brucie); Jessie Wallace doffs her hypothetical cap to real EastEnders Marie Lloyd and Georgia Brown (check out JW's amazing voice). And stand-up Jason Manford will be reflecting on the career of gurning, beloved pianist Les Dawson. (Who knew he was also a great singer?) It'll be nice to see them. To see them...

Last Tango in Halifax, BBC1, 9pm

Sally Wainwright's family drama returns for a new run with Derek Jacobi and Anne Reid returning as septuagenarian newlyweds Alan and Celia, while Nicola Walker and Sarah Lancashire play their troubled daughters. It's Valentine's Day, and Gillian is enjoying a date with a good-looking man from Halifax. However, as the evening continues, things aren't quite what they seem with the charismatic Gary. Following Alan's terrific opening gag about face cream, he and Celia arrange a honeymoon adventure to New Zealand to visit his brother Ted. Alas, their happiness is soon scuppered with the sudden arrival of someone from Alan's past. And during a cosy night in front of University Challenge, a loved-up Caroline thinks that resting an engagement ring on a heavily pregnant Kate's bump is the perfect time to pop the question. But then John, her ex-husband, shows up with bad news. Nina Sosanya and Tony Gardner also star.

Mapp and Lucia, BBC1, 9.05pm

In 2014, we've seen Steve Pemberton in the dark comedy Inside Number 9 and the downright bleak Happy Valley, but now he's getting in touch with his lighter side. He's adapted EF Benson's much-loved novels for this new three-part period comedy, in which he also takes a starring role. It's set in the fictional town of Tilling, where resident schemer Miss Elizabeth Mapp (Miranda Richardson) thinks she's just pulled off a coup – she's letting her house to Mrs Emmeline 'Lucia' Lucas (Anna Chancellor) for the summer months. Unfortunately, it turns out imperious, snobbish Lucia has no intention of letting Mapp guide her through the town's social circles, and instead plans to charm, or if necessary bully, her own way into the residents' lives. As the two women find themselves locked in an escalating war for supremacy, is Tilling really big enough for the both of them?

Rita & Me, ITV, 8pm

Half-a-century ago Barbara Knox made her debut on Coronation Street. Even in those days when the soap was just a few years old, she was in awe of her co-stars. "I was so terrified I lost my voice," she recalls. The sight of Elsie Tanner, Ena Sharples and Minnie Caldwell left her speechless. After eight years away, Knox joined the regular cast in 1972 and, aside from a brief spell away in 2009, has been a regular there since. Here, Barbara retraces her childhood holidays on the coast, steps back into Blackpool's Tower Ballroom where she first caught the performing bug; revisits Oldham Coliseum where she relives her earliest performances, and talks about her work away from Weatherfield – including her singing career and radio and TV appearances alongside performers like Ken Dodd. She's also reunited with actor Thelma Barlow – aka Mavis Wilton. Plus, Malcolm Hebden – better known as Rita's friend Norris Cole – discusses the off-screen friendship he shares with Barbara. She could have settled for an easier life years ago, but thankfully there's little danger of her leaving the Street soon.

Public Notices

Transport for London

Notice for the purpose of the Crichel Down Rules

PROPOSED DISPOSAL OF THE FOLLOWING PROPERTIES ("the Land"):

Land at Studley Drive, Ilford IG4 5AH

The Land has been declared surplus to requirements by Transport for London ("TfL") and is being put forward for disposal. The Crichel Down Rules ("the Rules") require Government Departments under certain circumstances to offer back surplus land to the former owner or successor in title or sitting tenant for sale at market value. Statutory bodies holding land that has been compulsorily purchased are recommended to follow the Rules and TfL has decided to do so in relation to the Land.

Under the Rules, former owners or their successors in title (or in priority to them), certain residential sitting tenants with long term security of tenure) may be entitled to purchase the land formerly in their ownership (or in the case of sitting tenants, the land comprising their dwelling) at current market value subject to certain exceptions set out in the Rules which may be of application. If these exceptions were to be applied then there would be no entitlement to purchase the land in question.

TfL considers that the Land falls within one or more the exceptions in the Rules and, therefore, it is not obliged to offer back any of the Land to the former owner or their successor in title.

If you are the former owner of the Land or their successor in title and you:

- a) consider TfL's assessment that the Land falls within one or more exceptions in the Rules to be incorrect; and
- b) wish to purchase, at current market value, the land formerly in your ownership or in your predecessor in title's ownership please respond to this advertisement in writing within two months of the date of its publication explaining the grounds for your challenge to TfL's assessment, setting out the basis for your claim that you are the former owner of the Land or successor in title to the former owner and confirming your intention to purchase the Land. If no such challenge to TfL's assessment and notice of intention to purchase which qualifies under the Rules is received, TfL intends to sell the Land at the expiry of the two month period.

Former owners or their successors in title responding to this advertisement should do so in person or through their solicitors or agents by writing to:

Erica Rabone, BNP Paribas Real Estate UK, 5 Aldermanbury Square, London, EC2V 7BP

ANDY HANDY AS SWANS ARE SUNK

West Ham United

West Ham United 3 Swansea City 1
Brian Jeeves reporting from Upton Park

GEORDIE striker Andy Carroll headed a terrific double as West Ham United sunk Swansea City and moved back into the Champions League places on a dramatic afternoon at Upton Park.

West Ham are unquestionably enjoying their best campaign since the conception of the Premier League more than 20 years ago.

The Hammers went into this clash having lost just twice in 10 outings, and having made Upton Park something of a fortress of late, with Southampton the last visiting team to take maximum points away from east London back in late August.

Gary Monk's Swansea outfit sat two points and places beneath the Hammers in seventh. But without a win on the road in five matches, Monk was fully aware his charges needed to replicate home form on their travels.

On a bitterly cold afternoon West Ham started the brighter.

Enner Valencia was snubbed out by Ashley Richards's brilliant last-ditch tackle as the Hammers looked for an immediate breakthrough.

The home side continued to stroke the ball around confidently. Kevin Nolan scuffed wide after a sweeping move orchestrated down the right by Alex Song and Cheikhou Kouyate, then Swans' keeper Lukasz Fabianski made an excellent reflex stop to deny Nolan from close range.

But in the 19th minute the West Ham fans were stunned into silence.

Wilfried Bony crisply finished a neat move involving Gylfi Sigurdsson and Jefferson Montero to give the Welsh outfit the lead.

The Hammers looked for a way back. Valencia fired over after Carroll had knocked down Aaron Cresswell's centre, while at the other end Adrian was forced into an unconventional save to thwart the lively Sigurdsson.

The visitors almost doubled their advantage when Bony's long range effort fizzed past an upright with Adrian at full stretch.

West Ham continued to toil. Cresswell headed Stewart Downing's diagonal ball into the grateful Fabianski's gloves. Then just before the break they restored parity.

Carroll looped a trademark header over Fabianski from Carl Jenkinson's right-wing cross much to the delight and relief of the Upton Park faithful.

At the start of the second period Hammers' boss Sam Allardyce pitched leading marksman Diafra Sakho into the fray in a bid to pep up his sides attacking options. And the home side began to press with a little more purpose.

Cresswell's cross just eluded Carroll but West Ham almost fell behind again when Bony raced forward before thumping past Adrian only to see his attempt crash off the top of the crossbar.

But West Ham now looked the more likely to score. Sakho's low centre was scrambled away by Angel Rangel as Hammers pressed, and from Downing's resulting flag-kick Carroll pounced to head West Ham ahead.

The Swans' troubles soon deepened as keeper Fabianski impeded Sakho and was given his marching orders by referee Chris Foy.

The West Ham man appeared to have pushed the ball past the former Arsenal stopper with his left arm.

Swans' boss Monk later stated there was a likelihood that they would appeal the decision.

Former Hammers midfielder Leon

A dull first-half saw the east Londoners create the better openings, with former Orient keeper, Stuart Nelson, making vital saves from David Mooney, Shane Lowry and Gianvito Plasmati.

But Lowry showed his prowess where it mattered on 39 minutes to deny Luke Norris a certain goal after the O's had failed to deal with Jake Hesenthaler's wickedly in-swinging free-kick.

Orient again dominated after the interval but failed to convert their chances, with Bradley Pritchard twice unable to connect from inside the six-yard box.

The O's, however, were soon on the back foot, and a minute after Gills'

Britton was sacrificed by the visitors to make way for substitute goalkeeper Gerhard Tremmel.

West Ham seemingly had the bit between their teeth now. Sakho dispossessed Ashley Williams and fired passed Tremmel only to see his effort agonisingly come back off the foot of a post. Swansea rallied, Sigurdsson's drive was deflected over while Kyle Bartley was wayward after finding room on the edge of the Hammers' box as the Swans enjoyed their best spell of the match.

But West Ham were in the ascendancy. Sakho raced on to Carroll's flick and smashed the ball beyond Tremmel for the third and his seventh in eight games.

In the burning embers Ki Sung-Yung hacked off the line in the nick of time from Sakho, then Tremmel denied the Senegalese forward with a last-gasp stop as the home side looked to kill off the contest.

After three victories in just over a week, a buoyant Allardyce's response to whether it could get any better was, "I hope so. I hope we can stay as consistent as we've been."

He added: "We're third in the league now and we put a nice gap between the teams below us."

"I think we've just got to try and maintain it now."

"The changes to the team from Tuesday [at West Brom] have paid off, which is a big decision for me and the staff because when you have a winning team people often ask why change it, but with fatigue and with players coming back from injury I felt they needed to play and it paid off because we've gone out and deserved to win, and not only deserve to win but win playing some really good attacking football."

When asked if he felt that Carroll had played any better for West Ham, Referee: Chris Foy.
Assistants: G Beswick and M Perry.
Fourth Official: M Dean.

sub, Cody McDonald, had forced skipper Scott Cuthbert into a fine block, the unmarked Egan rose to plant a firm 79th minute header – from a Michael Doughty flag-kick – past Legzdins's despairing dive.

Despite the introduction of late sub, Dean Cox, who hit the top of the home net with a curling effort, it was too little too late for a punchless second-half Orient attack.

Recalled left-back Gary Sawyer said: "It's frustrating as they had the one chance and it went in. We had a couple of chances – but it just wouldn't go over the line for us."

Match-winner Egan added: "It was a scrappy game. We had to work tirelessly and grind out a result. The Allardyce stated: "I have to say he's very close to it, when he's scored two at the end of it you have to say yes."

"His movement and the quality of our balls into the box now is very apparent."

Despondent Swansea manager Monk said of his goalkeeper's dismissal: "If you look at the build-up to it he knocks the ball past the keeper with his hand, but I don't think we dealt with the situation leading up to it particularly well."

"I think Ashley [Williams] makes a mistake and gets caught the wrong side of the player, but before Fabianski makes any contact whatsoever the player knocks it past him with his left hand, clearly, so realistically it should be a hand ball to us."

"But it wasn't a clear goalscoring opportunity either."

Monk added: "I don't think we ever reached the levels that we have this season. It's the first time I can actually say that."

"I've no complaints with the result, we didn't deserve anything."

West Ham will look for a fourth successive Premier League victory when they take on Sunderland at The Stadium of Light on Saturday, kick-off 3pm.

Swansea City: Lukasz Fabianski, Ki Sung-Yung, Ashley Williams, Leon Britton (Gerhard Tremmel), Wilfried Bony, Wayne Routledge, Jefferson Montero (Bafetimbi Gomis), Angel Rangel (Nathan Dyer), Gylfi Sigurdsson, Kyle Bartley, Ashley Richards. Subs: Jordi Amat, Jonjo Shelvey, Nathan Dyer, Tom Carroll, Dwight Tiendalli.

Referee: Chris Foy.
Assistants: G Beswick and M Perry.
Fourth Official: M Dean.

Non-league round-up

Goals galore for local clubs

by Brian Jeeves

THERE was a feast of goals in games featuring the region's teams with Vanarama Conference South Chelmsford City and Concord Rangers showing the way.

The Clarets recorded an impressive 4-0 success over Hemel Hempstead Town at the Melbourne Stadium. Michael Cheek, Rohdell Gordon, Lee Sawyer and Southend United loanee Jason Williams found the net in front of a decent crowd of 725.

Concord fans were in "seventh heaven" as the Beach Boys hammered Farnborough by seven goals without reply at the Aspect Arena. Joe Gardner hit a brace for the home side with Lewis Taaffe, Gary Ogilvie, Sam Collins, Taylor Mile and Steve Cawley completing the rout.

In the Ryman Premier Division, Grays Athletic were the big winners. Former Colchester United man Freddie Ladapu (2) and Dumebi Gb-Dumaka (2) were on target in a 4-0 win over Witham Town, while Billericay Town picked up maximum points, winning 2-1 at Harrow Borough.

AFC Hornchurch drew 1-1 with Leiston at Bridge Avenue and it was the same outcome at Rookery Hill where East Thurrock United shared the spoils with Margate.

In Division One North, Great Wakering Rovers thumped Soham Town Rangers, Lewis Sparrow (penalty), Tom Ranger, Jay Nash and Eljay Worrell finding the net for the villagers.

There was a thriller at Leslie Field where bottom of the table Burnham Ramblers narrowly lost to Redbridge by four goals to three.

Thurrock easily saw off Wroxham 3-0, while local rivals Aveley won by the same score at AFC Sudbury.

Calvin Poku grabbed an early goal for Barkingside who drew 1-1 with Cray Wanderers, and Sherwin Stanley was on target in another 1-1 result as Brentwood Town grabbed a point at Harlow Town. Elsewhere Romford went down 2-1 at Dereham Town.

And it was goals, goals, goals in the Essex Senior League. Newham edged out Clapton 4-3, while Barking also hit four, winning 4-2 at Takeley.

Haringey Borough had a 3-1 success over Waltham Forest and there was a 2-0 win for Greenhouse London at Sporting Bengal United.

Stansted beat Tower Hamlets by the odd goal in three, while a single goal was enough for Bowers & Pitsea to pip London Bari.

Selected games from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Harold Wood Athletic pick up precious Premier Division points with a 3-0 win over Kelvedon Hatch, while Rayleigh Town won a five-goal thriller 3-2 at Newbury Forest.

In Senior Division One, Canning Town drew 1-1 with Old Southendian and the pick of the games in Senior Division Two saw Rochford Town and Old Barkabeyans share six goals at Rochford Recreation Ground.
